Admission criteria

Murdoch College has stringent procedures in place to assess whether a student's qualifications, experience and English language proficiency are appropriate to gain entry to study at the College. Admissions requirements can be found in our Admissions Policy.

A. Applicants with higher education study

Entry into Diploma courses requires successful completion of Year 12 with an ATAR of 50; or successful completion of a Foundation Studies program from recognized Australian Universities/ Colleges; or a CERT IV from TAFE.

B. Applicants with vocational education and training (VET) study

Entry into Diploma courses requires successful completion of a VET qualification at Certificate IV.

C. Applicants with recent secondary education (within the past two years)

Entry into Diploma courses requires an ATAR of 50 or equivalent. For school leavers entering undergraduate courses the College offers adjustment factors, outlined in the Admissions Policy.

D. Applicants with work and life experience

Mature age students (21 years of age and over) may be admitted to a course without meeting academic entry requirements where they can demonstrate the attainment of relevant and recognised prior learning experience.

Additional information

Domestic applicants with overseas qualifications

Overseas qualifications will be assessed for equivalence in Australia at the time of application using the Country Education Profiles (CEP) and/or ECCTIS online tool. AQF qualifications and providers will be verified using one of the Australian government's registers, such as Training.gov.au (TGA) and the TEQSA National Register.

English language proficiency

Applicants whose secondary school education, undergraduate or postgraduate qualification was not completed in English or whose work in the industry was not carried out in English must demonstrate levels of English proficiency as outlined in the Admissions Policy.

How to apply

Applications for admission can be made directly with the College via the website. Click on the following link - https://murdochcollege.edu.au/how_to_apply.html

Enrolment

Steps to accept the offer will be outlined in the email sent to you along with the offer letter. When accepting offers, students are required to pay the first trimester fee stated on the offer letter or return a FEE-HELP application form.

Recognition of Prior Learning

All students who possess prior learning may submit evidence of such and apply for recognition. The College may award exemption towards the achievement of an award of various forms of prior learning. Further information about the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) process can be found in the Recognition of Prior Learning \(RPL\) Policy.

Deferral

Students may request to defer the commencement of their studies by submitting a completed form to the College, together with documentary evidence verifying their situation. Further information can be found in the Changes to Enrolment Policy. Note a deferral fee applies.

Fees and charges

Murdoch College's fees and charges are available on our website. Click here.

Student profile

The table below gives an indication of the likely peer cohort for new students at the institution. It provides data on students that commenced undergraduate study and passed the census date in the most relevant recent intake period for which data are available, including those admitted through all offer rounds, across all Australian campuses, and international students studying in Australia.

Applicant background	January, 2025
